West Shore Sail Club Mentioned in Sailing Magazine.

You can sail seven months on Lake Erie

To SAILING

I'm confused by the story by Gregg Nestor (Escape to Pymatuning, November 2003). Being an active sailor on Lake Erie, I'm wondering why Lake Pymantuning offers more sailing days than Lake Erie?

Granted we are handicapped by ice in the early spring; however, by April the ice is off and boats start launching. My goal is April 15. Once in a while I get my bottom repainted and ready to sail before then.

As far as pulling my boat for the winter, this year I was out November 17 and there were still hardy souls who stayed later.

There are two ILYA race series on the Michigan side of the lake and they end the third week of October.

If Mr. Nestor is referring to trailer sailors and their limitation on places to launch, we have public launches open through October and into November in the northwest corner of Lake Erie and I'm sure there are more south of here that I'm unfamiliar with.

New Race Committee Meeting Permanent Location

The February Race Committee Meeting was postponed due to problems with the location. It was decided to meet at Sportsman's Den at Riverview Highlands in Riverview. This is expected to eliminate availability of the location problems and everyone should know where to meet. The meetings will be held the second Tuesday of the month unless otherwise specified.
